
Community Partnership Award

Nomination Form 2022

FHLB Cincinnati is pleased to offer the Community Partnership Award program. This new award program gives FHLB members the opportunity to nominate nonprofits or community initiatives that they work with and support in their communities to receive a grant of up to $5,000 from the FHLB, and to be recognized among peers at the annual FHLB Member Appreciation Events.

Award Categories

All nominated nonprofits must serve or have a program that serves one or more of the following focus areas. Please select all that apply.

- Affordable Housing
- Economic Development
- Education
- Wellness

Submissions will be scored on a scale of 50 points and all nominations should answer the following in no more than 1,000 words in the aggregate:

- Describe the project or initiative, who it serves, and how it meets one or more of the four focus areas above to address a community need. (10 points)
- Describe the member's role and involvement, e.g., financial support, employee(s) serving as nonprofit board member(s), coordinating company volunteer activities with the organization, etc. (15 points).
- What impact has this project or initiative had on the community and is the program or impact sustainable? (10 points)
- How would this funding be leveraged with other partners? (10 points)
- How would this program address diversity, equity, and inclusion? (5 points)

You may attach up to two pages of supplementary materials.

Guidelines

1. Nominations are only accepted from FHLB Cincinnati members.
2. Nominees must be projects or initiatives of nonprofit organizations.
3. Members may submit multiple nominations but will be selected for no more than one award per year.
4. Nominations are limited to 1,000 words plus two (2) additional pages of supplementary materials.
5. Four $5,000 Community Partnership Awards will be announced at each of four FHLB Member Appreciation Events held throughout the FHLB District.
6. Community Partnership Award winners and their nominating members consent to photo and video content coordinated and used for promotional purposes by FHLB Cincinnati.
